- Call to Order
- Pledge of Allegiance
- Presentations/Discussions
- Public Hearing.
(To accept the Preliminary Budget for Fiscal Year 2023).
- Standard Agenda Items
 - Resolutions:
 - a. Authorizing the Town Board to set a Public Hearing for November 16, 2022 to extend the Local Law for the Moratorium on Cryptocurrency Mining.
 - b. Approval from the Town Board to continue coverage of all current Medicare Age retirees under their AARP United Healthcare Supplement + Prescription drug plans. If the current retiree moves to a permanent residence out of NY State, they must notify the Town and United Healthcare. They must also notify EPIC, as that program only provides assistance to NYS residents.
 - c. Approval from the Town Board to eliminate the out of pocket prescription reimbursement that was $500-$1500. The retiree will now be responsible for this cost. Participation in enrollment in NYS EPIC is encouraged.
 - d. Approval from the Town Board to have the annual membership fee for AARP be the responsibility of the retiree.
 - e. Approval from the Town Board that beginning January 1, 2023, all new retirees will automatically be enrolled in the Medicare Advantage Plan or they can enroll in another healthcare program at their own expense.
 - f. Authorizing the Town Board to approve the lease of a Dozer for the Massena Highway Department.
 - g. Approval from the Town Board to hire the Candidate for the MEO opening for the Massena Highway Department.
 - Next Scheduled Meeting (November 16, 5:30 PM Public Hearing and Regular Town Board Meeting).
 - Executive Session
 - Meeting Adjournment
