Town of Massena State of Emergency Ends

Steve O'Shaughnessy, Massena Town Supervisor stated today that the State of Emergency for the Town will expire today and will not be renewed at this time. This coincides with start of the gradual reopening of the northern region of New York State. This end of the Town of Massena State of Emergency does not supersede Governor Cuomo's Executive Orders and our community must comply with state regulations for reopening.

As we start the State's Phase One stage, the Town Government and employees will continue to be open to the extent that we can. Our highway crew is working out in our community and our International Airport is operating at full staff providing support to Boutique Airline and any private plane traffic.

Starting Monday, May 18, the Town Hall will remain closed, but staff from the Supervisors office, Tax Office, Town Assessor and the Town Clerk will be available by appointment, email or telephone from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday. The contact information can be obtained from the Massena Town website. The Town Court will not be open till at least June 1, but staff is available by phone.

The Massena Library is gearing up to be able to provide residents with the curbside service that they provided before the closure. The Celine G. Philibert Cultural Centre and Museum will remain closed until further notice, but staff is available by phone.

The next regular town board meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 20 at 5:30 pm via Facebook live and can be found on "The Town of Massena" page. We are scheduled to have a public hearing on an improved Town noise ordinance that will start at 5:30. The town will post a phone number that people can call in to comment. The regular meeting will follow.
